FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME

The Farquharson Foundation Scholarship Programme is designed to advance education and provide financial assistance by awarding scholarships to students in financial need pursuing formal training/instruction in voice or creative arts, and/or in ministerial studies and/or enrolled in a college, university or vocational programme.

CRITERIA FOR SCHOLARSHIP

1. Must provide proof of enrolment in a formal training programme in voice or creative arts, and/or in ministerial studies and/or enrolled in a college, university or vocational programme.
2. Must provide most recent official transcript of academic achievement.
3. Must provide a short essay (minimum 150 words to maximum 1 page) demonstrating need and making a case for receiving a Farquharson Foundation Scholarship and how these funds will assist you in furthering your goals.
4. Must provide two references: one written by someone from your current or previous institution or programme of study (Dean, Principal, Professor, Teacher, Instructor, etc.) and one from a Bishop, Pastor, Board Member or Titled Officer (Elder, Evangelist, Deacon, etc.) in good standing, of a community church. Each of these written references must include contact name, telephone number and e-mail address (if available).

Note: The Farquharson Foundation reserves the right to reject an incomplete Application Package.

RESTRICTIONS

To maximize the number of people benefitting from financial assistance, no individual shall receive financial assistance from the Farquharson Foundation more than three (3) times.

NOTIFICATION

Applicants will be notified by the Foundation Board, in writing, whether their applications were successful or not and at that time will receive an invitation to the Farquharson Foundation Awards Ceremony.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION SUBMISSION IS MAY 31st
